

FASHION NEWS

Dior to present their Cruise 2019 collection at the Great Stables of Chantilly

After showing Cruise 2018 in California, Dior heads closer to home this year, to the Château de

Chantilly near Paris, for Dior Cruise 2019, May 25.

Last May, Dior showed Cruise 2018 amongst the incredible valleys of the Upper Las Virgenes Canyon Open Space, nestled into the heart of the Santa Monica mountain range. Celebrating the fashion house's 70th anniversary, the show was inspired by Christian Dior, who hosted a 1947 Dior show in Los Angeles. On May 25 this year, Dior will unveil their Cruise 2019 collection at the Great Stables in the Château de Chantilly, just a few kilometers from Paris. A prestigious symbol of the French art of living, the grandiose stables were built in the 18th Century by architect Jean Aubert. The choice of Chantilly marks a return to the house's roots, as Christian Dior designed an evening dress inspired by the town of Chantilly for his second ever collection, for Fall/Winter 1947-1948.

By Héloïse Salessy, translated by Lily Kinnear Griffiths the 06 April 2018

News Dior

Share this story

See also _____

BUZZ OF THE DAY

Vanessa Paradis' 20 beauty secrets

INSPIRATION

Chanel's most extraordinary show spaces

COVER GIRLS

30 questions to Anna Ewers

INSPIRATION

The most memorable looks at the MET Ball